

Experienced professionals

Bring your expertise, industry knowledge, and leadership to the table.

Take your career to the next level with Haley & Aldrich.

Industry leaders are pillars in delivering innovative, out-of-the-box approaches to our clients' most complex projects.

At Haley & Aldrich, our experienced professionals are respected industry experts and thought leaders in environmental and engineering consulting. Not only do they bring their expertise and historical successes to projects, but they also play a part in the growth of Haley & Aldrich's staff, and the innovative thinking and advocacy we bring to our clients.

Our experienced professionals are pioneers in developing new technologies and approaches to solve our clients' most difficult challenges in cost-effective, sustainable ways. They're speakers at some of the industry's largest conferences and technical symposiums, as well as co-authors of academic and research-based papers that have the potential to change how others in the industry approach projects.

At Haley & Aldrich, we pride ourselves on a small-firm culture, with big-firm opportunities. Our staff appreciate that project diversity and flexible environment – it allows them to not only chart their specific career path, but also work on projects that are meaningful to them. With an average tenure for our senior staff members of 16 years, it's clear they appreciate being at the helm of their career.

When you join Haley & Aldrich, you're more than just a number. We give you the flexibility and support to chart your own career path and explore the areas you're passionate about.

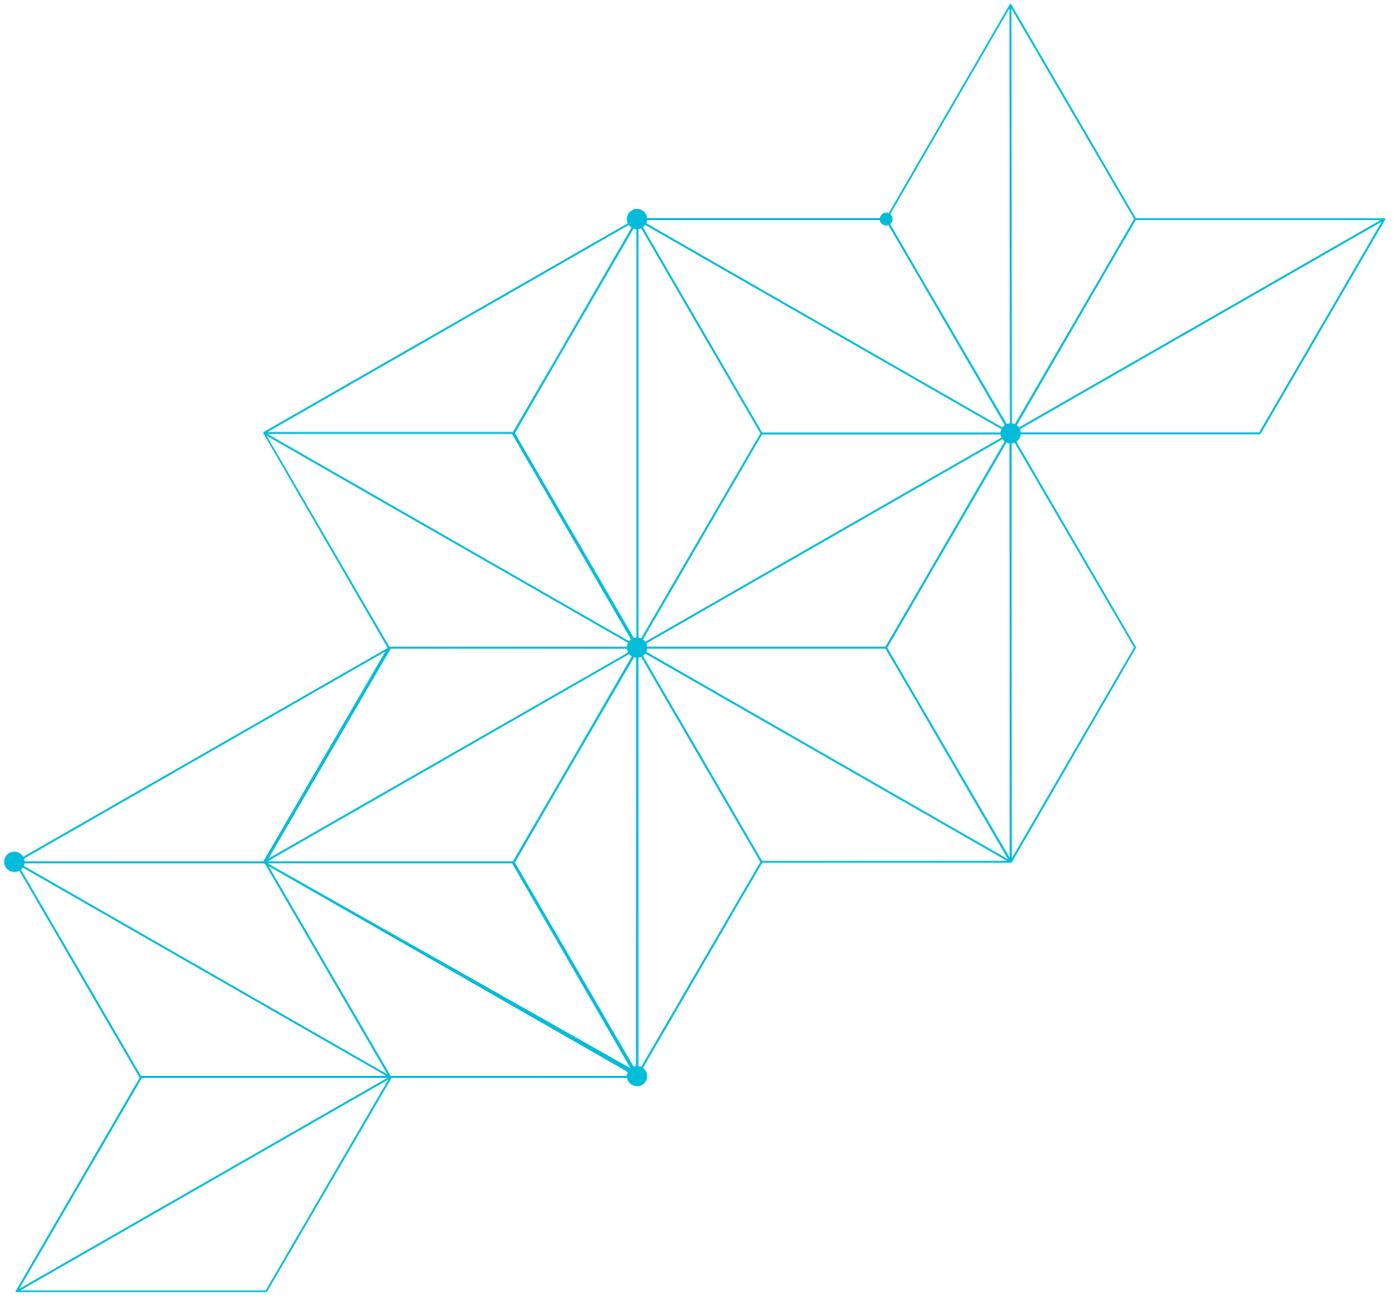

"H&A recognizes my strengths, and lets me leverage those strengths."

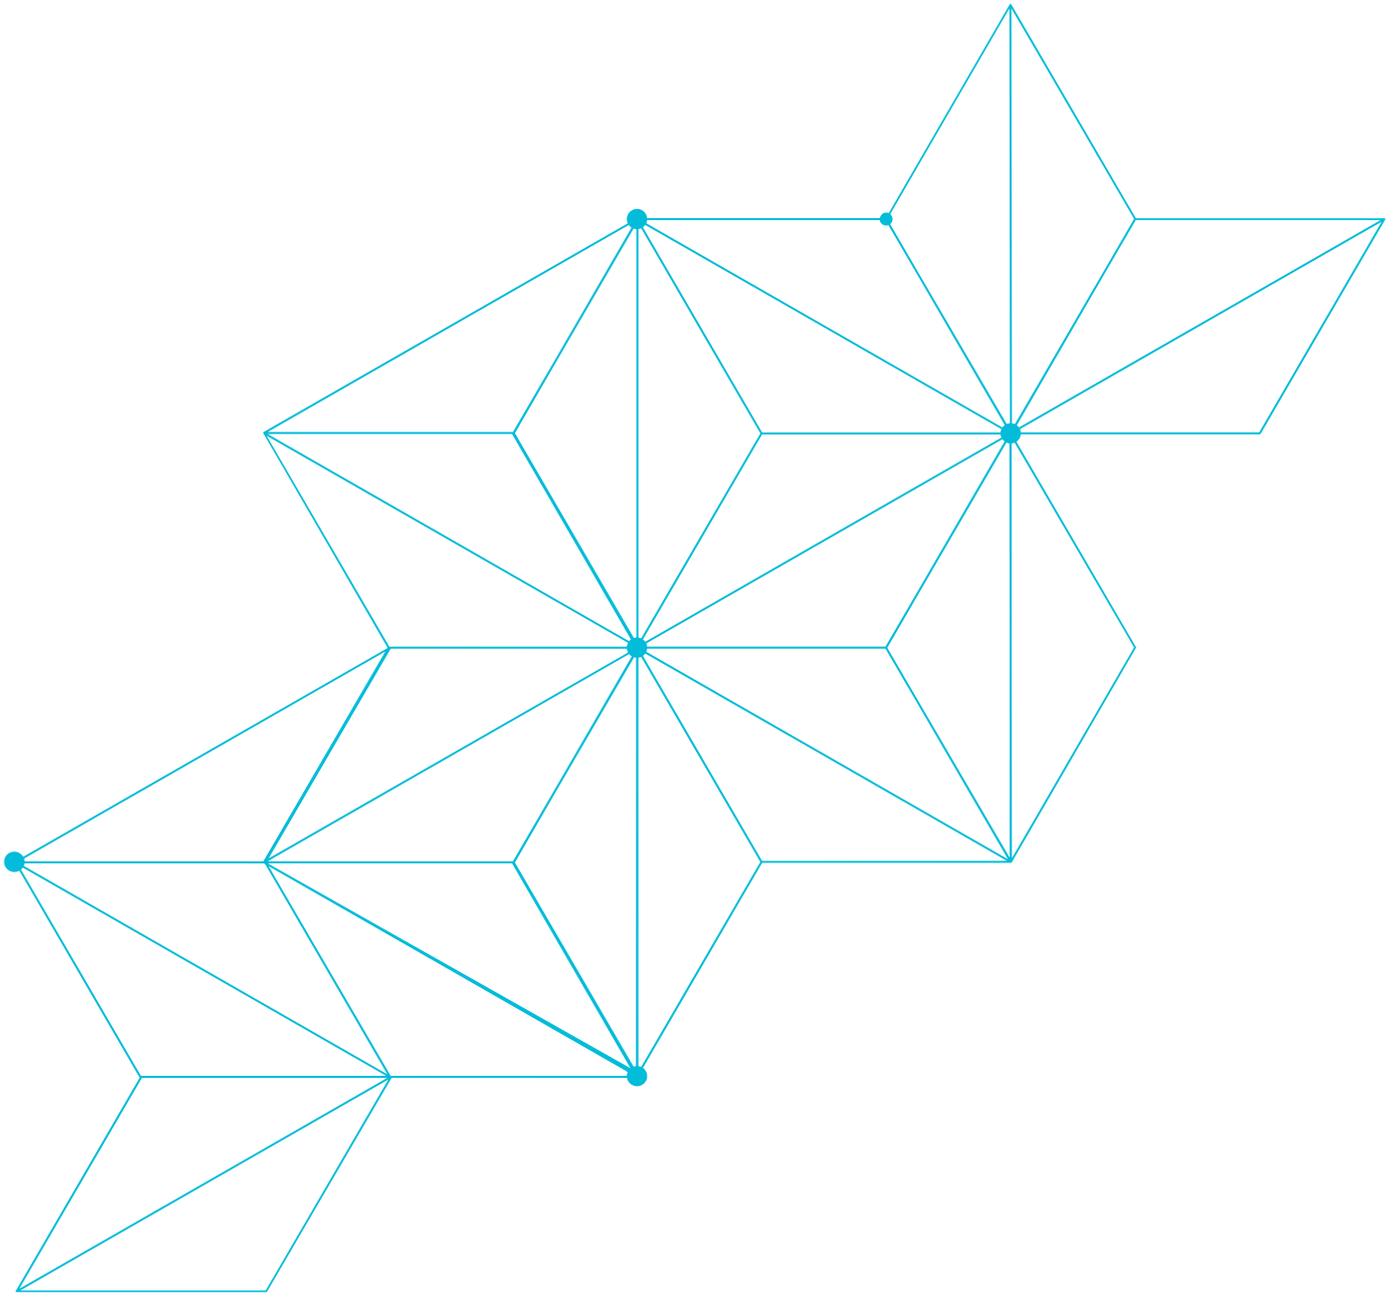

– Lisa Turturro, Principal consultant, Lean Black Belt, and executive client coach; 25-year H&A veteran

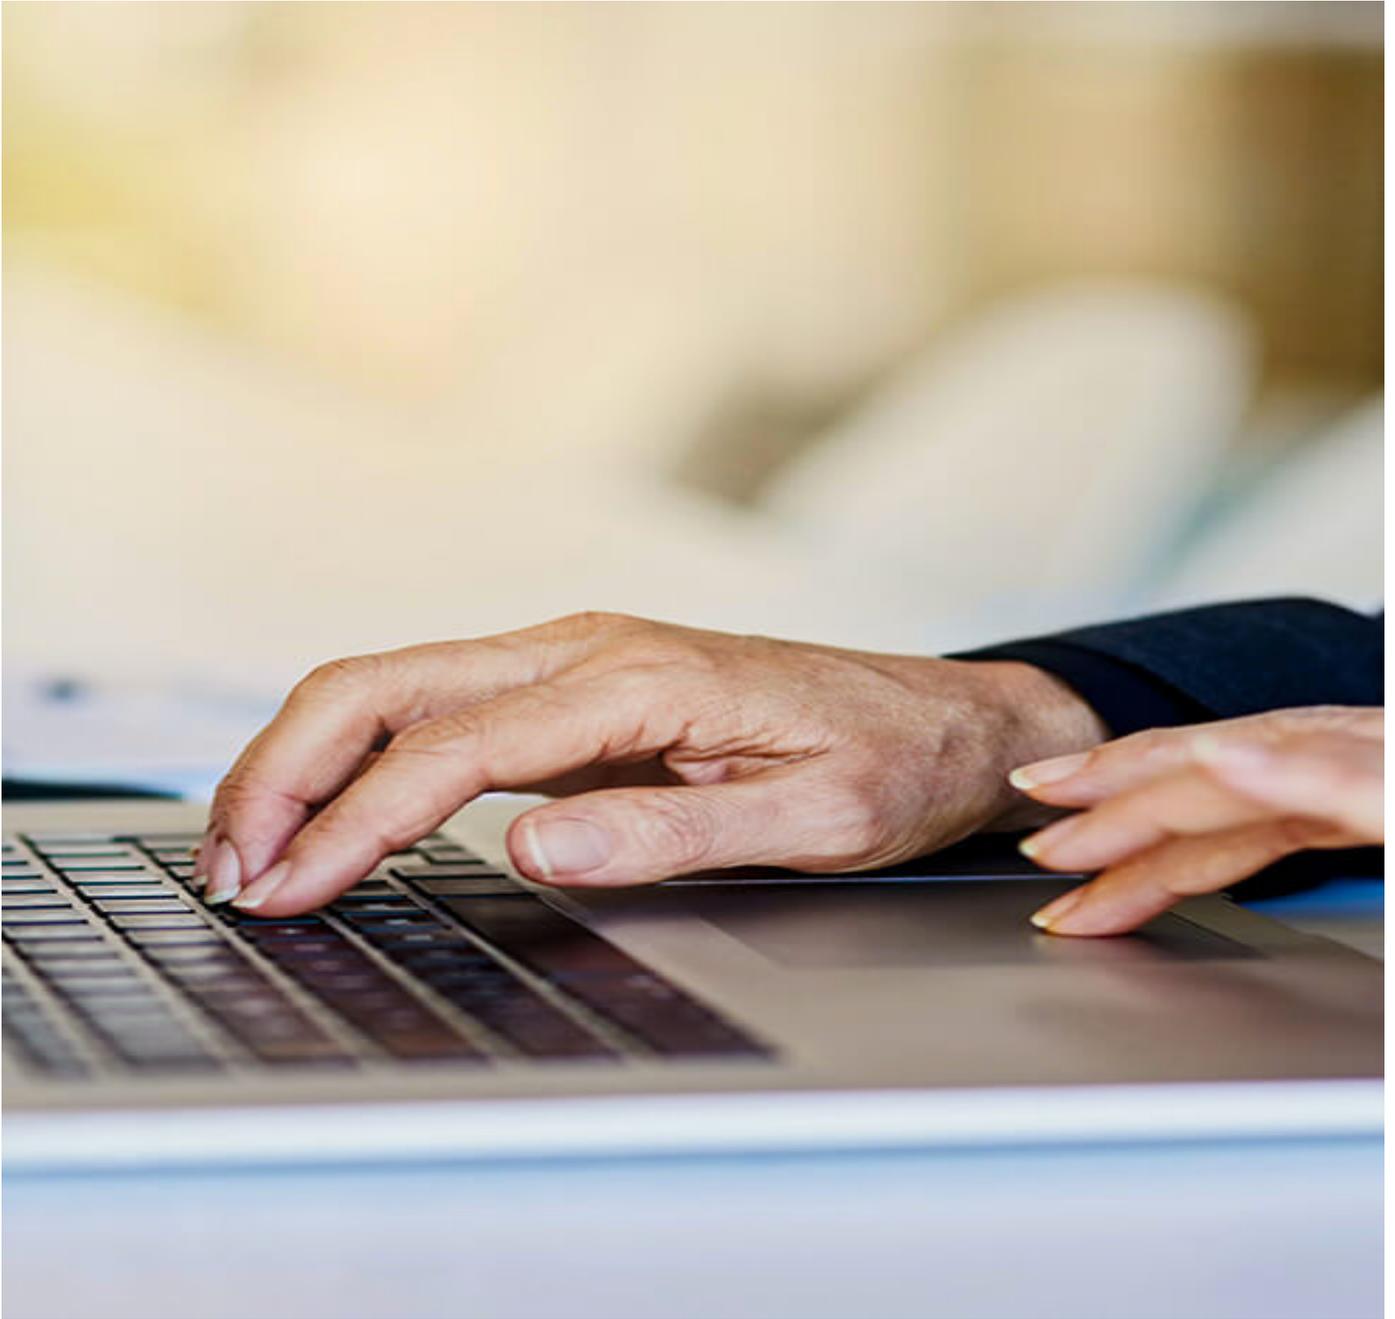

"People always ask me how I've been in one job for my career, but I haven't. I've had six or seven different jobs — they've just all been with H&A."

– Bruce Wilkinson, senior Lean practitioner, program manager, and senior geologist; 33-year H&A veteran, has worked at four H&A offices
