Haley & Aldrich receives performance award from Boeing for fourth consecutive year

Burlington, Mass., Nov. 14, 2022 – Haley & Aldrich announced today that it has received a 2021 Supply Chain Performance Achievement (SCPA) award. The Boeing Company issues the award annually to recognize suppliers that have achieved superior performance. This is the fourth year in a row that Haley & Aldrich has received this distinction from Boeing. Haley & Aldrich maintained a Silver composite performance rating for each month of the 12-month performance period, from January to December 2021, based on quality, safety, on-time delivery and other demanding criteria.

“Boeing has long been a valued partner, so it’s truly an honor to accept another performance award,” said Michael Basel, Aerospace Market Segment Leader at Haley & Aldrich. “As we do for all clients, we strive to provide outstanding value to Boeing by blending the best science with advocacy and industry experience.”

This year, Boeing recognized 183 suppliers – out of the nearly 11,000 in its global network – with either a Gold or Silver Boeing Performance Excellence Award. Haley & Aldrich is one of only 154 suppliers to receive the Silver level of recognition, which also qualifies it to be considered for Boeing’s Supplier of the Year award.
