Haley & Aldrich receives Silver Boeing Performance Excellence Award

Burlington, Mass., May 14, 2018 – Haley & Aldrich announced today that it has received a 2017 Boeing Performance Excellence Award \(BPEA\). The Boeing Company issues the award annually to recognize suppliers who have achieved superior performance, including meeting Boeing's high performance standards necessary to meet their customers' expectations and help them remain competitive in the global economy.

This award also acknowledges that Haley & Aldrich staff have achieved superior supplier performance for Boeing in the following categories: quality, delivery, general performance, and partnering for success. Haley & Aldrich maintained Boeing's "Silver Key Performance Indicator" rating for each month of the 12-month performance period, from October 2016 to September 2017.

"Haley & Aldrich staff are extremely proud of this esteemed achievement," said Elie Haddad, Aerospace Market Segment Leader at Haley & Aldrich. "We aim to routinely deliver exceptional value to Boeing and all our clients – through our technical expertise, the timeliness of our work, collaborating with our clients for success, and in the creative solutions we offer to address difficult challenges."–

Approximately 400 suppliers were recognized with either a Gold or Silver level Boeing Performance Excellence Award; Haley & Aldrich is one of 329 suppliers to receive the Silver level of recognition. According to Boeing's website, the company had more than 13,000 suppliers from all 50 U.S. states and 48 countries in 2016.-

BPEA recipients will receive a trophy, be recognized in Boeing's internal and external publicity, and be eligible for the Boeing Supplier of the Year award.
