Haley & Aldrich receives third consecutive Boeing Performance Excellence Award

Burlington, Mass., Dec. 7, 2020 – Haley & Aldrich announced today that it has received a 2019 Boeing Performance Excellence Award (BPEA). This is the third year in a row that the company has received this prestigious distinction. The Boeing Company issues the award annually to recognize suppliers that have achieved superior performance, including meeting Boeing’s high-performance standards necessary to meet customers’ expectations and help them remain competitive in the global economy.

This award acknowledges that Haley & Aldrich maintained a Silver composite performance rating for each month of the 12-month performance period, from October 2018 to September 2019. Haley & Aldrich also won the Silver award for its performance during 2018 and 2017.

“Our goal is to provide outstanding value to Boeing, and all our clients, by blending the best science with advocacy and industry experience to resolve even the most complex challenges,” said Michael Basel, Aerospace Market Segment Leader at Haley & Aldrich. “We are honored to accept this prestigious award for the third year in a row.”

This year, Boeing recognized 357 suppliers with either a Gold- or Silver-level Boeing Performance Excellence Award. Haley & Aldrich is one of only 295 suppliers to receive the Silver level of recognition. Additionally, the firm was eligible and nominated for Boeing’s Supplier of the Year award.

As a BPEA recipient and Supplier of the Year nominee, Haley & Aldrich has received a trophy and been recognized in Boeing’s internal and external publicity.
