

News

Haley & Aldrich to share experience in energy, PFAS treatment technology, sustainability, and more at TENSOS

Burlington, Mass., Apr. 28, 2025— Haley & Aldrich experts will discuss evolving energy policy, PFAS treatment technology, sustainability compliance, watershed management, and other environmental topics at the 2025Tennessee Environmental Network Show of the South (TENSOS), taking place in Chattanooga from May 14-16.

This flagship environmental conference draws hundreds of environmental and legal professionals from across the United States. In addition to speaking at the conference, Haley & Aldrich's Todd Plating and Scott Anderson serve on the TENSOS organizing committee.

Connect with Haley & Aldrich experts at Booth #413 in the exhibit hall and at the following sessions throughout the conference:

Session chairs?

- Todd Plating: "Planning for the Implementation of Alternative Energy — Solar and Hydrogen," May 14, 1:40-2:40 p.m.
- Todd Plating: "New Nukes in Oak Ridge — Enrichment and Fuel Production," May 14, 4:20-5:20 p.m., and May 15, 9:40-10:40 a.m.
- Todd Plating: "Alt-fuel Implementation Examples in Tennessee and Navigating Future Alt-fuel Opportunities," May 15, 1:50-2:50 p.m.
- Todd Plating: "TVA IRP 2025: How Did We Get Here? What Does it Mean?" May 16, 10:40-11:40 a.m.

Speakers

- John Xiong: “PFAS Investigation Lifecycle: Detection, Separation, Concentration, and Destruction,” May 14, 2:50-3:50 p.m.
- Adam Tucker: “Leveraging Management Systems to Address Emerging Sustainability Compliance Challenges,” May 15, 11:10 a.m.-12:10 p.m.

For more information:?
Contact our Media team.