With annual golf tournament, Haley & Aldrich and sponsors raise $52,000 for healthcare institutions

Burlington, Mass., July 1, 2025 — Haley & Aldrich hosted its 15th annual Charity Golf Tournament on June 26 at the Waverly Oaks Golf Club in Plymouth, Massachusetts. The sold-out event generated $52,000 to benefit Boston Children's Hospital and Spaulding Rehabilitation Hospital, both long-standing Haley & Aldrich clients. In 15 years of hosting the tournament, the firm has helped raise nearly $620,000 for the hospitals and their affiliates.

This year, 144 golfers from 31 Boston-area companies in the real estate development, architecture, engineering, and construction industries participated in the tournament. Sponsoring companies included three Diamond sponsors — James W. Flett, Pace Analytical, and W.L. French; nine Platinum sponsors — A.A. Will Corporation, BOND Building Construction, Dimeo Construction Company, East Coast Slurry Company, Eastern Bank, GeoLogic Earth Exploration, Isgenuity, Keller, and U.S. Environmental; five Gold sponsors — Earthwork Industries, Hub Foundation, LeMessurier, Milton Cat, and VHB; and 14 Silver sponsors.

“We are pleased to be able to support these world-class institutions that do such great things for the Boston area and the medical community,” said Michael Weaver, P.E., general manager of Haley & Aldrich’s East Business Unit. “A big thank-you to our partners and colleagues who continue to join us every year to support this cause and spend valuable time together.”

Haley & Aldrich has worked with Boston Children’s Hospital for many years. Recent projects include the Hale Family Building on the Longwood Campus, which features a state-of-the-art intensive care unit; the Ambulatory Building in Needham; and the Franciscan Children’s Hospital in Brighton.

The company also works with Mass General Brigham at the Spalding Rehabilitation Hospital in Charlestown, the McLean Hospital in Belmont, and the Hale Building at the Brigham Campus.

Haley & Aldrich plans to host its next Charity Golf Tournament in June 2026.
