Lessons learned about keeping the workplace clean and healthy

Denny Lerch, Haley & Aldrich's Service Leader, EHS Compliance and Sustainability, recently responded to questions about workplace health and safety in a Q&A-format article, Lessons learned about keeping the workplace clean and healthy, published in the Future of Business and Tech. In the article, Denny provides advice to business owners for back-to-work policies during the pandemic, the best tools and technologies for employee health and safety, and the future of EHS (environment, health, and safety) management.

In addition to Denny's responses, the article includes perspectives from thought leaders such as Arianna Huffington, Co-Founder of The Huffington Post and Founder and CEO of Thrive Global. The article was published in the Future of Business and Tech's "Workplace Health and Safety" edition and was included as a print insert in "USA Today" and online. Read all of the experts' answers on the Future of Business and Tech website.
